Consent for Communication

Patients/Clients frequently request that communication be by phone, voicemail, email or text. HEALING HANDS THERAPY CENTER LLC respects your right to confidential communications about your protected health information (PHI) as well as your right to direct how those communications occur. Since email and texting can be inherently insecure as a method of communication, I will only communicate with you by email or text with your written consent at the email address or phone number you provide to me below. Please be aware that if you have an email account through your employer, your employer may have access to your email.

When you consent to communicating with me by email or text you are consenting to email and texting communications that may not be encrypted. As well voicemail or answering machine messages may be intercepted by others. Therefore, you are agreeing to accept the risk that your protected health information may be intercepted by persons not authorized to receive such information when you consent to communicating with me through phone, voicemail, email or text. HEALING HANDS THERAPY CENTER LLC will not be responsible for any privacy or security breaches that may occur through voicemail, email or text communications that you have consented to.

You may choose to limit the type of voicemail, email or text communication you have with me if you wish to limit your risk of exposing your protected health information to unauthorized persons. Please indicate below what types of correspondence you consent to receive by email or text.
